

Common Law Courts

Great Britain & International

Lawful Notice

6th April 2020

To World Leaders / Heads of State.

We the people write to you on the 700th Anniversary of the Declaration of Arbroath. Like our ancestors before us, we find ourselves in a position whereby the people are being attacked by the unaccountable State, on a daily basis. Crimes against the people are no longer acceptable and to address this unlawful behaviour, the people have confirmed their inherent and inalienable right to stand together and have created their own Declaration for their Common Law Court on the 3rd January 2019.

Declaration of the Common Law Court

3rd January 2019

To all living men and women, we hereby stand united and submit this declaration to the Common Law Court 'Book of Deeds' for preservation for all time.

We the people have inherent birth rights, established by our creator, which protect us from harm, loss and injury from others. For many years now, men and women have been subjected to criminal and fraudulent behaviour by the state's actions which have been imposed upon us, against our will, by both criminal coercion and legal deception. Fear and fiction have thus combined to bind us into slavery.

The state has committed attacks, injustices, killings, robberies, theft, unlawful imprisonment and countless other enormous outrages against the people, sparing no one on account of age, sex or position. To this robbery, slaughter and plunder they give the lying name of "Government", they have stripped us of our ancient freedoms and call it "progress".

We, the people, can no longer endure such assaults on our loved ones and personal freedoms and hereby confirm our inherent right to stand under the jurisdiction of the Common Law. Based, as it is, on the timeless laws which govern the conduct of men and were established by our creator in days of old and remembered and loved by our fathers as they built our nations. We will hold to this without ceasing for any man.

Common Law Courts

Great Britain & International

Borrowing from the declaration of our ancestors, made in Arbroath in 1320, we declare that, as long as but a hundred of us remain alive, never will we on any conditions be brought under mandatory rule by legal statute. It is in truth not for glory, nor riches, nor honours that we are fighting, but for freedom – for that alone, which no honest man gives up but with life itself.

This declaration is signed below by a sample of the men and women who stand united under the jurisdiction of the Common Law Court. This declaration is hereby recorded in to the Common Law Court 'Book of Deeds' on the 3rd January 2019 for preservation for all time.

It is because of the continued treasonous crimes against the people, perpetrated by the servants of the commercial statutory system, that this Notice has been issued.

This lawful notice confirms the position of those standing under the common law and the authority and jurisdiction of the Common Law Court.

Should you wish to contest this matter, you should outline in writing the basis for your claim within thirty days of your receipt of this notice. You will thereafter be invited to present your case to a jury of your peers who will adjudicate the matter.

In the event that you choose not to challenge or rebut this notice within the allotted 30 days, this will be taken as tacit consent to the content of the declaration and to the authority and jurisdiction of the Common Law Court for those who have submitted a Declaration of their Birth to the Common Law Court.

You should note that any attempt to enforce a legal act or statute against a living man or woman, without their consent, constitutes a crime and that all those who have submitted their Birth Declaration to the Common Law Court have expressly withdrawn their consent. You may be held personally accountable if you disregard these rights.

Any response to this Deed should be sent by e-mail to info@commonlawcourt.com

