any employees, principals or agents, of the Crown;
any person acting on behalf of any corporate Courts;
any person acting on behalf of any third-party agents; and any person acting on behalf of any sheriff, bank or financial receiver.

Any permission you believe you have is hereby withdrawn.

Notice that this land at this geographical location (the above address) is a common law jurisdiction and any violation of this notice will be classed as trespass and you will be sued in a civil court of law for this Tort (trespass to land) without prejudice.

There is no lawful excuse to ignore this notice and you are reminded that ignorance of the law is no defence. Should you choose to ignore this notice and visit this private property and refuse to leave when asked, you will be committing the offence of aggravated trespass and liable to summary conviction under Section 61 & 68 of the criminal justice and public order act 1994.

Ignoring this lawful notice shall invoke Castle Doctrine, and reasonable force, up to and including deadly force shall be used to defend this private property, its inhabitants, and their property. Case Law: R. v Robert White 2022.

You have been forewarned.
